

Daphne Jackson Fellowship Opportunity at the University of York

Applications are invited for two, two year part-time (0.5 FTE) Daphne Jackson Fellowships that will be hosted by the University of York. The Fellowships are intended for individuals returning to research across STEM, social sciences, arts and humanities that is aligned to the University's Research Strategy.

The University of York will host and half sponsor the Fellowships. The remaining funding will be secured by the Daphne Jackson Trust from additional sponsors.

University of York

The University of York is committed to promoting a diverse and inclusive community – a place where we can all be ourselves and succeed on merit. We offer a range of family friendly, inclusive employment policies, flexible working arrangements, staff engagement forums, campus facilities and services to support staff from different backgrounds.

The University of York's aspirations are articulated in their Equality Diversity and Inclusion Strategy.

The University of York is proud to have held an institutional Athena SWAN award for more than 10 years and multiple departmental awards, including gold in Biology and Chemistry, reflecting our ongoing commitment to increasing gender equality across all aspects of university work and life.

Daphne Jackson Fellowships

The Daphne Jackson Trust is dedicated to returning researchers to their careers following a break of two years or more taken for a family, caring or health reason.

Daphne Jackson Fellowships are unique - They offer professionals wishing to return to a research career after a break of two or more years, the opportunity to balance an individually tailored retraining programme with a challenging research project in a suitably supportive environment.

The Fellowship consists of a challenging research project and at least 100 hours retraining per year. The unparalleled support offered by the Trust's Fellowship Advisors and administrative staff, coupled with mentoring and retraining provided during the Fellowship, give returners the confidence and skills they need to successfully return to research.
